Speaker & Productivity Coach

Fostering Cohesion & Growth

You've put together the perfect team. Your new team members are on board, and now you're ready to turn that initial spark of potential into long-lasting success.

Enter soft skills. These non-technical, interpersonal abilities are the secret sauce that makes for happy, harmonious, and high-performing teams. While often under-appreciated, soft skills are the backbone of successful team building, driving employee satisfaction, retention, and growth (both personal and professional).

But soft skills aren't just about the workplace. They're about creating a vibrant culture that fuels progress and innovation. In this eight-part series, participants will experience soft skills through engaging, hands-on activities and meaningful homework to continue the journey after the session ends.

Signature Topics

- ✓ Time Management Skills
- ✓ Effective Communication

Dawn Regner is a soft skills expert who empowers small and mid-sized businesses to build high-performing teams. With a wealth of experience in training & development, and business, Dawn understands that one of the key aspects often overlooked in building a successful team is the cultivation of soft skills.

Her signature series, "Soft Skills Development: Tools for Team Success," is a result of her own research and practical experience and is designed to strengthen cohesive relationships at every level of an organization. Recognizing that a positive initial experience needs to convert to long-term momentum and success, Dawn is committed to creating an environment where teams thrive. Her innovative approach will transform your workplace dynamics, enhance customer service, and foster successful team building.

Are you prepared to create a thriving organization, ready for exponential growth?

Let's empower your team with the soft skills they need to make it happen!

Every session is thoughtfully designed to fit into your team's busy schedule. Each one is a focused 90-minute capsule, which can be arranged back-to-back, with a refreshing 15-minute break in between. For optimal effectiveness, no more than four sessions should be planned in a single day.

Your team's journey to success begins here. Together we will foster unity, cultivate the necessary skills, and build a resilient team to drive success.

Client Feedback

" Working with Dawn was the push I needed to figure out my purpose and passion. She helped me focus on the most important things to propel my life forward, set my intentions, and get unstuck. She is a compassionate listener and an excellent communicator."

Kristina M.

" I started my business ten years ago with a dream, a few "how-to" library books, and an incredible mentor. I can say without a doubt that if Dawn wasn't part of my journey, my business would not be the success it is today "

Angie V.

" Dawn doesn't just give me the answer, she leads me in the right direction so I can figure out things myself, which helps me so much more. She listens to my frustrations, gives me sound advice, and celebrates my accomplishments and successes with me."

Julie C.
